This is an increase of $6,-243.65 over the amount reported for the week ending October 12th, when it was $48,-

FIRES .- A little after 5 o'clock yesterday evening an alarm of fire was sounded from the almshouse box. The occasion was the discovery made by the officers of the institution that a house on the county road. about a quarter of a mile north of the almshouse, occupied by Jack Tinsley, a colored huckster, was on fire. The firemen laid their hose and got on one or two streams of water, and were able to save the adjoining house from destruction, but not from all injury. Tinsley's house was burnt down; dollars. Fire supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

On Sunday the roof of a house at the corner of Twentieth and Franklin streets, occupied by Abner Brooks, caught fire from a defective flue. The station-men at Company C's engine-house, on Main street, were notified, and without turning in allow the parties to get rid of their liquors. an alarm went to the fire and put it out.

COMMERCIAL BARBECUE AT CLOVER HILL. The Clover-Hill barbecue, which comes off to-day, is a commercial, and not a political affair. An opportunity is afforded a few of our merchants to visit the mines that they may form for themselves a just idea of the importance of the enterprise to the commerce and manufactures of Richmond two thousand, but such is really the case; and a more thritty and quiet community can hardly be found in the State, while they contribute more than a mite to the commerce of Richmond and Petersburg.

The number of invitations extended was necessarily limited, and it is specially desired that every gentleman invited will find it convenient to accept. Should the weather be inclement, the barbecue will be postponed to some future day, of which due for three months, with labor, in default of notice will be given.

TEMPERANCE.-R. B. Evans, of Henrico, D. G. W. P., assisted by G. E. Meredith, W. H. L.
